Sandra,
To a really nice lady who I met at Band Camp. How we had General Business together. We had a kinda fun sometimes but it was boring sometimes. I hope you don't mind a fun sometimes. See ya Freshman talking a Junior to shut up. HA HA. I've done a pretty good job. So there not that very much you can do. I hope I have some more classes with you next year so a Sophomore can tell a Senior to shut up.

Mark Richardson

Sandra,
It has been fun in homeroom this year. We will have more classes together next year. Have a great summer.

John Luttrell

P.S. Sit & didn't write anything bad

Sandra,
To a really nice lady who I met at Band Camp. How we had Several Business together. We had a kinda fun this year anyway. See ya

To Sandra;
You are a sweet and crazy girl, you're fun to be around. love ya.
Keith

Sandra;
Too great girl,
hope you have better luck w/ the guys next year (Ha Ha). Remember don't party so hard every weekend. Or you'll be worn out by the time your 25, & love John

Sandra
I'm glad I got to know you this year. Youre a real trip & a good friend. (but Im jealous cause you dance better than me).

Sandra;
Hey woman. Well this year flew by and I hated it but I will miss it.
Even though you made my year
most ya,
see ya at B-comp.
and all will still
miss you + the song
alot.
love you lots
Mike

Sandra;
I'm so glad
I met you.
Have a great time this summer
& stay crazy!
Love ya,
Rhonda
PS. maybe we can change to cook for us sometimes.

Sandra,
It's been great knowing this year. We have had of fun at the Rink this year and I hope it continues.
Shine on and have a great Summer!
Love ya!

Sandra,

CHANG! Well, I'm so glad we got to be friends. You're really sweet, and a true friend. We've had some fun; guaranteed that! I hope next year we get some classes together

The past times are all memories; we'll make some more won't we!

* Remember; at my red light, they have the right away!!! *

It seems to me our friendship has grown this past year! I'm glad we met or I wouldn't have anyone to almost get run over with.

Good luck in all you do! See ya this summer!

I Love You!

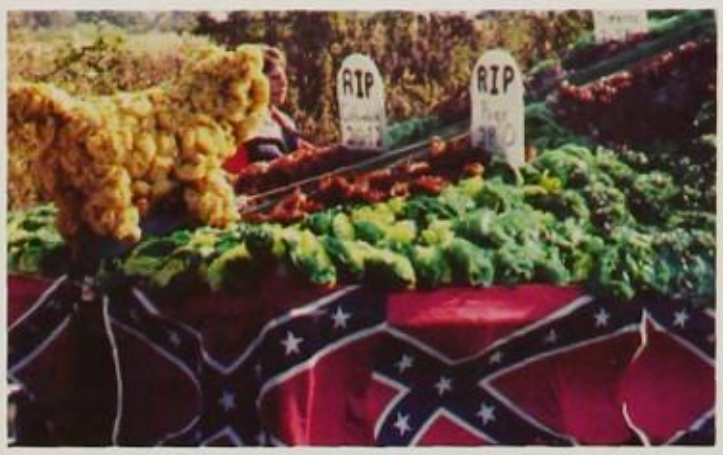
1982 Homecoming



The 1982 Homecoming against the Lawrenceburg Wildcats was, as expected, a victory. The week was jam-packed full of fun with decorating the halls and constructing floats. To set the mood of the week, each day was a different dress-up day. Concluding the week of Homecoming, a pep-rally with ''beautiful cheerleaders'' highlighted the festivities.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT
Patrick Albert

Patrick Albert is the bassist for the hard-core punk band, Committee for Public Safety (C.P.S.) . He has been playing bass since 1977 and guitar since 1981. C.P.S. has opened for such bands as Black Flag, D.O.A., Cult Heroes, and Meat Puppets, as well as headlining both locally and out of town. Also, they were chosen to be one of the five bands to play at the Alternative Jam III in Nashville.

Jan Carter

Jan has danced most of her life and loves it. She's a member of the Southern Association of Dance Masters to which she attends annual conventions. Jan was in the Centennial Youth Ballet in Nashville. She has performed in the Nutcracker as the Snow Queen, the Fairy Godmother in Cinderella, and in many other recitals. She has taken from Ann Carroll School of Dance for 10 years.

Tony Frost

Tony "The Beaver" Frost is the youngest member of a Nashville-based band called THE BUNNIES that frequently plays at Nashville clubs. He plays the drums and has been playing since he was a child. He has played professionally for three years. He has also taught himself to play bass and guitar.

Most Outstanding

Bobby Brannon Marcia Allen

Boy and Girl

Bobby Brannon

This year Bobby Brannon has been chosen as the Most Outstanding Senior Boy. Bobby excels in academics and his name is frequently seen on the honor roll. He also excels in many sports such as basketball, golf, track and, last but not least, football for which he has received many awards. He was named quarterback for the first team All Mid-State. He was also first team All-County his junior and senior years, all NIL second team, honorable mention All-State, MVP Winner's Award, and Co-Captain of the team, and this year received Most Athletic Boy.

This year Marcia Allen has been chosen Most Outstanding Senior Girl. Marcia is not only at the top of her class, but also holds many offices in various clubs throughout our school. During her sophomore year she was class President. During her junior year she was Spanish Club President, Newspaper Staff Manager, and Student Council Girl's Vice-President. This year Marcia is Vice-President of the National Honor Society, Senior Class President, a semi-finalist of the National Achievement Scholarship, a member of the JETS Club and was voted Most Likely to Succeed.

LAST WILL

To my family and friends, I leave my dreams. Things unaccomplished are the most remembered. Bret Lynn

I, Renee Lynch, being of half mind and shaky body, hereby leave my ability to surf on the senior bleachers during pep rallies to the upcoming seniors in hopes that they will become as seasick as I did.

I, Pollyanna Williams, being of sound mind and body, leave to the students to come:
— my chauffeured limo, juicy steaks, and vacations to those who encounter accounting.
— all my eraser scraps and dull, broken pencils to those who make it through art with Mert.
— my typing paper with erased holes and all my hair that I have pulled out from doing timed writings in Typing. (Good Luck)

I, Mignonne Mosley, being of hollow mind and slight body, do hereby bequeath the following:
— my truly excellent car, that quits at least five times every morning on the way to school, to anyone who can get it out of the garage.
— my GARFIELD statue to the future Art students (that is, if Mert ever finds it.)
— to anyone with as an unusual name as mine, the book on pronunciation to give to Dr. Offutt.

I, Debora Britton, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my ability to have rhythm in Marching Band to Jay Darrell. I leave my sly ability to get smart and even with Mr. Simpson to Tracye McLemore and all the Seniors of '84 who take the risk.

I, Darryl Lendell Covington, being of sound mind and body, leave my clothes to Carla Thomas, my personality to Angela Vaughn, and my gold jewelry to Bridgett Lee, and good luck to all upcoming Seniors.

We, Joanna Butters and Sheryl Moodespaugh, being of pea-brain minds and great bodies, do hereby leave our ability to keep "Playgirl's" monthly centerfold in our locker all year, without it being confiscated, to Jean Carter and Jackie Hudson.

I, Brad Chrisman, leave to Sean Alexandre, my height, which won't make him real tall, but it will get him up to about 4'5".

I, Todd Robinson, leave any upcoming Soph. or Jr. my cunning ability to con, fake, and outsly the infamous Mr. Tommy Hankins and Mr. Lawson, furthermore I have not yet been caught.

I, Tigger Micksch, alias Elaine, leave to Druly Taulby, alias Patty, a gift which was bestowed unto me by Michael Sweazey; the concepts of reality and unreality and the unrealness of reality and the realness of unreality. And unto Greg Cullen, I leave my trusty lock that inevitably fails to appear on the correct locker.

We, Valerie Waters and Sherrie Holman, being of sound mind and body, leave all our diets and exercise tips to Mr. Pike.

I, Karen Lavonne Booker, being of sound mind (?) and body and being the last Booker (11) to graduate from F.H.S., leave my position of Vice-President of the Student Council to anyone creative enough to come up with a campaign that tops BOBO J, and I leave all my height and athletic ability to anyone willing to accept the nickname "Ralph Sampson." I would also like to leave to Mr. Fleming a lifetime supply of straws, to Coach Cartwright, a couple of funny jokes, and to Mr. Jordan, 2 left shoes. To Mrs. McMillian and Mrs. Grimes, I leave my 36-24-36 shape (ha!) to fight over; to Coach Gamble, I leave 2 black horses (hopefully he'll use them on his team). I leave to Mrs. Tyree, 2 pies squared and to Dr. Offutt, my extensive vocabulary. To Mr. Nelson, all the Chemistry equations I could neither set up nor solve; to Coach Laverty, all of my deviant tendencies; to Mr. Hankins the ability to figure out where I had all of my late slips; and to Coach Chapman and Mr. Reynolds, I leave my ability to drive off the road while in the assimilator.

I, Greg Estes, leave my feet to Tommy Badon, because I can see that Donald White, alias "slower than pond water", left his feet to Badon last year. "Pitiful, truly, pitiful." — Coach Garner

I, Leann Martin, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave to all future Franklin High students, spirit and the ability to be an individualistic person.

We, Alison Hardin and Jay Yokley, leave to Brandy Brent and Renee Goad something that was left to us — Tradition.

I, Gerald "Baby G" Little, hereby leave my comb to any newcomer who wishes to keep every hair in place.

We, Teresa Deason and Charlene Young, being of fried brains and no bodies, hereto bequeath our ability to dress alike to Renee Greve and Pam Holubek. Also we leave our ability to keep a messy locker to Tim Tilley, Kenneth Adams, and Trey Stafford in hopes that they can do a better job than we have.

I, Nathan Rotter, bequeath my ability to drive for two months without an accident.

I, Annette McGonigle, being of no mind and little body, do hereby leave all the luck in the world to upcoming Seniors who did not learn their English from the beginning of Jr. High. They'll need it to pass Senior English! Good Luck!

I, Lynn Johnson, being of unsound mind and no body, do hereby bequeath my ability to not study and still make passing grades to John Bain and Tony Beaty.

I, Wanda Walker, being very talented in all of my classes, leave to all the Juniors and Sophomores, all the good luck I had in school.

AND TESTAMENT

We, Kim Dawson and Rosemary Greene, being of sound mind, leave our heart and soul to our two favorite coaches — Laverty and Garner.

We, Karie Travis and Tina Taylor, being of sound mind and body, leave to Miss Farris all our gossip, worn out typing erasers, and days we really weren't sick in hopes that someday she will see us as efficient secretaries.

I, Leslie Cirillo, bequeath the following on the date that I become an alumnus of Franklin High School — much to my relief.
— I leave my G SPOT to anyone who can find it.
— I pass on my musical tastes and preferences to those who must carry on the tradition at FHS next year, Kelly Brackner, Joey Lupy, Frank Yancey, and Christina Wilson.
— I request that the students who take typing next year please look for my sanity. I believe I left it there this year. If found, please forward it to me.

I, Lissa Hagewood, leave to all the upcoming freshmen the privilege of trying to figure out their schedule and find their classes on the first day of school

We, Marcia Allen, Tracey Hockensmith, and Bev Hudson, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby leave our brains to anyone who has the "nerve" to take Physics, Calculus, Dr. Offutt's World Lit., and Trigonometry in the same year.

We, Karen Dixon and Rebecca Peach, being of mangled minds and battered bodies, do hereby leave all the bruises, scratches, calluses, short fingernails, and black eyes to all of next year's Franklin High School Band Rifle Squad!

I, Michelle Wilson, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby leave the chewing gum collection in my locker to Julie Carlisle and Lisa Priest in hopes that they will keep it growing.

I, Dianne Pewitt, leave all my dead crawdads to Tina Parker, Tony Wren, and all the little people in America. To the ones who are reading this, I leave all of my cents, even though I don't have any.

I, Darryl Miller, being of unstable mind, leave all my useless knowledge of Psychology to Mr. Lawson, in hopes that it will help him deal with Rebellious students and crazed teachers.

I, Valerie Hardison, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Tracey Meggs the ability to try to succeed in everything as I did.

We, Leigh Ann Stratton and Mignonne Mosely, leave our ability to have pizza delivered to us during lunch and be caught by Mr. Hankins, to anyone brave and daring enough to try to escape the cafeteria food.

I, Marco Fernandez, bequeath the following:
— to Stephanie Wallace, my little sister, I leave my shoulder to lean on whenever needed.
— to Jamie Hedquist and Amy Chapman, I leave a very funny story.
— To Sandra Collie I leave "The Fly."
— and most of all I leave to anyone my ability to love someone as much as I love Anna.

I, Dean Mayes, alias "Butch," leave my Smurf collection to Kim Barnett so long as she gets rid of her Matt Dillon picture.

I, Kim Barnett, being of always unsound mind and body leave the following:
— to Lori Hawkins, Suzanne Morse, Dee Walker, and Pam Smith my "Power of the Pout" to use in any hopeless guy situation.
— To Gretchen Bright, I leave my driving abilities, along with "1001" ways to get out of any traffic situation.
— Last, but not least, I leave to Kilyn McReynolds all of my dizzyness, "sissy love," the pictures in the locker, and my last jar of peanut butter to get her through her Senior year.

I, Leigh Ann Stratton, being of chic mind and haute couture, do hereby leave my subscriptions to Vogue and The Talbots to Mrs. Grimes, in the fervent hope that she will realize that wearing Bermuda shorts is not a sign of moral decadence, nor a Preppie plot to undermine the traditionally wholesome values of FHS, and will allow next year's students to wear them to classes.

I, Grant Cole, being of somewhat questionable sanity, do hereby leave my awesome and legendary collection of "GEC" sweaters to Kevin Shepard (so he will have something decent to wear) and my moped to anyone stupid enough to ride it home right after school lets out.

I, Kari Nelson, being of mind (not exactly sound) and body (snicker) leave my snail collection (what's left of it because I keep forgetting to feed them) to any person who HATES ESCARGOTS!

We, Chrissy Hester (Chester) and Kris Tschida, do hereby leave Coaches Clark and Garner each a pair of bifocals so that they won't miss any upcoming girls, and a cane to chase them with!

I, Anastasia Hudgins, leave to everyone what Stacy left to me: the ability to see the goodness in everyone and everything, to be any way I want to be, and the ability to make the most of the time and things I have. I've yet to learn the last one. On my own accord, I leave the ability to overlook all the smallness there is here and to view the greatness.

We, Jeff Young and Larry Yarborough, being of sound mind and deteriorating body due to cafeteria food, do hereby leave: all of our straws to Mr. Fleming, a dozen red toupees to Mr. Pike, and to all human beings, Mindy Hedquist, Michael, Spasms, and breathing Red Sand.

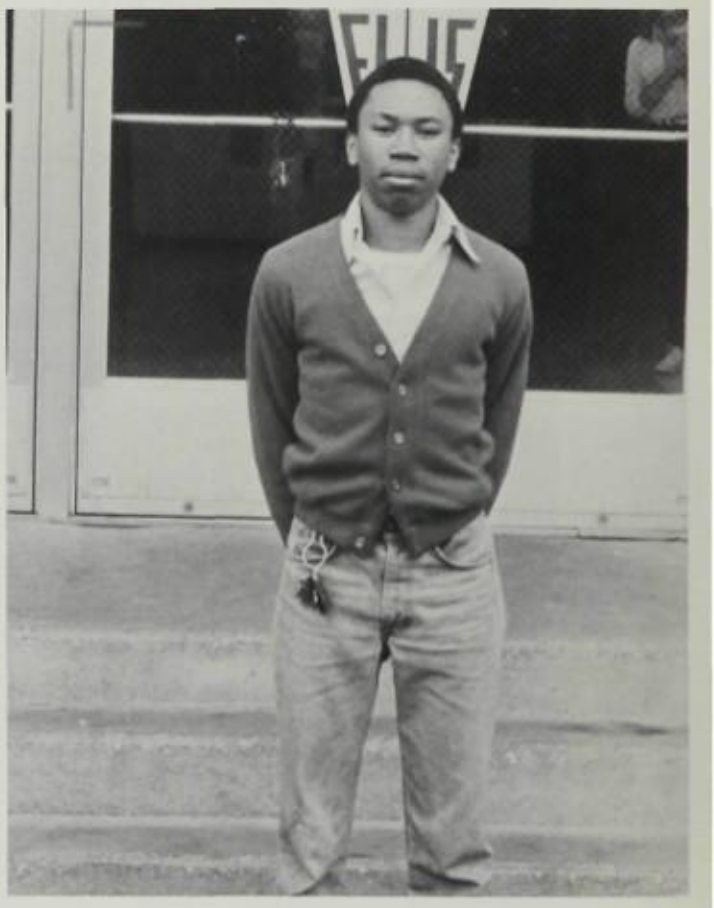
STUDENT

Cindy Billingsley is an outstanding artist of a calibre far more advanced than her years would indicate. She is well liked by her teachers and her peers. Cindy has been selling portraits done in pastels for over two years.



Clay Jenkins, a sophomore, is a member of the Franklin Optimist Boxing Team. He has been boxing competitively for eight years. As of the moment, he has earned a record of 157 wins — 11 losses with 10 knockouts. Two years ago he won a national crown in the 85 lb. class and was #1 in the United States. Clay also won competitions as a member of the 1980 Olympic team.

Lynn Lovett, a senior, is a phlebotomist at Williamson County Hospital. For those who do not know, Lynn draws blood for tests. Lynn has been doing this since October of 1982. Lynn hopes to someday be a professional nurse.

SPOTLIGHT

Mark Robertson has been boxing for 5 years for the Franklin Optimist Club, and has been in competition all over Tennessee, Georgia, and Alabama. In 1981 he won the District Junior Olympic and then advanced to the Regional and finished second. His coach is Phil Martin.

Suzie Johnson, a Junior, has taken gymnastics for six years and has instructed for three. She teaches 2 to 15-year olds at the Franklin Fine Arts Studio. She teaches barre routines, balance beam, and vault. Her favorite routine is the floor exercise. She plans to make a career of this and maybe, someday, own her own studio.

Claudia Gordon, a Senior, has been in the Youth and Junior Symphony in Nashville for four years. She is 2nd chair French Horn. The symphony performs five times a year and is sponsored by the Blair School of Music.

BOYS' STATE

Warren Brown is this year's choice for the Boys' State Award. He is involved in many school activities, such as wrestling JETS Club, and Spanish Club. He is also on the Prom Committee. Warren is also the Junior Vice-President of the Student Council.

GIRLS' STATE

This year's Girls' State Award goes to Pam Wall. She contributes a lot to our school through cheerleading, Student Council, Inroads, and the JETS Club.

SEWANEE AWARD

Sandra Bradley, the 1982-1983 Sewanee Award winner, is quite deserving. She is a cheerleader, a member of the Student Council, the Prom Committee, and the French Club.

SPORTS

Sandra,
I must say that I have had loads of fun w/you this year. You always bring my spirits up high w/your constant happiness & laughter.
I hope we have as much fun next year as we had this year. I'm sorry I dirtied up your shoes you can hit me if you want but not to hard because Ms. Grimes might get mad because she's my main lady. (Joke, you better laugh)

Love,
David

Sandra,
Wow! Can't believe that another year has gone by. We're seniors! Wow. You've been a great friend and I hope that our friendship will continue

Love,
Warren

Sandra,
I'm so glad we got to become close friends this year. You so much fun. Thanks for being so nice and cute. Please call me this summer (794-3975)!

Love,
Jill

The 1982-83 Rebel team, on the whole, had a good year with a record of 5-5. This record did not do justice to the devoted players and coaches. This year's team had several handicaps with which to contend. Due to its physical size and numbers, many felt that the Rebels were outmatched by larger teams such as, Mt. Juliet, Gallatin, and McGavock. However, despite these obstacles, Quarterback Bobby Brannon, who had a passing record of 1,650 yds., led the Rebels to defeat such tough opponents as Page, Smyrna, Columbia, Springfield, and Lawrenceburg. Wide ends, Greg Estes and Brent Daniels, along with running back, Johnny Robertson, contributed greatly to the winning of these games.

This year's Rebel defense must also be given credit for these five victories. The defensive line-up was as follows: Brent Daniels, Jeff Linville, Jim Teal, Scott Mennen, Mike Wallace, Otis Coffee, Shane Anglin, Eric Henderson, Gary Walden, Michael Lane, and Rich McCormick.

You can bet that next year's team will be a fine one. Juniors, such as, Jim Teal, Jeff Linville, Otis Coffee, Mal Quillen, and Jeff Sistrunk will make a great 1983-84 starting line-up.

Coach Clark, with assistant coaches Laxson, Carothers, Laverty, and Garner, has done a super job coaching this year's team. These men deserve much praise for the time and effort they spent coaching this outstanding team.

Congratulations on a good year, and good luck next year.

This year's Boys' basketball team was coached by Tom Hopkins and Danny Chapman, and had an excellent year with a record of 21-10. The starting team consisted of the following players: Danny Booker, Bobby Brannon, Robert Buchanon, James Cannon, Otis Coffee, Maurice Head, Michael Lane, Gerald Little, Kelvin McCullough, Mark Shepard, Terry Wagner, Don Wyatt.

Maurice Head was the scoring leader with an average of 20.3 points per game; Robert Buchanon had the second highest scoring average of 10. James Cannon had the highest rebounding average with an average of 7 per game. Maurice Head had the highest free throw percentage of 83%.

This year's average of 68% did justice to the outstanding effort put forth by the players and coaches.

In tournament play, the Rebels finished 4th in the district and runner-up in the region.

Everyone at F.H.S. congratulates you on a fine year.

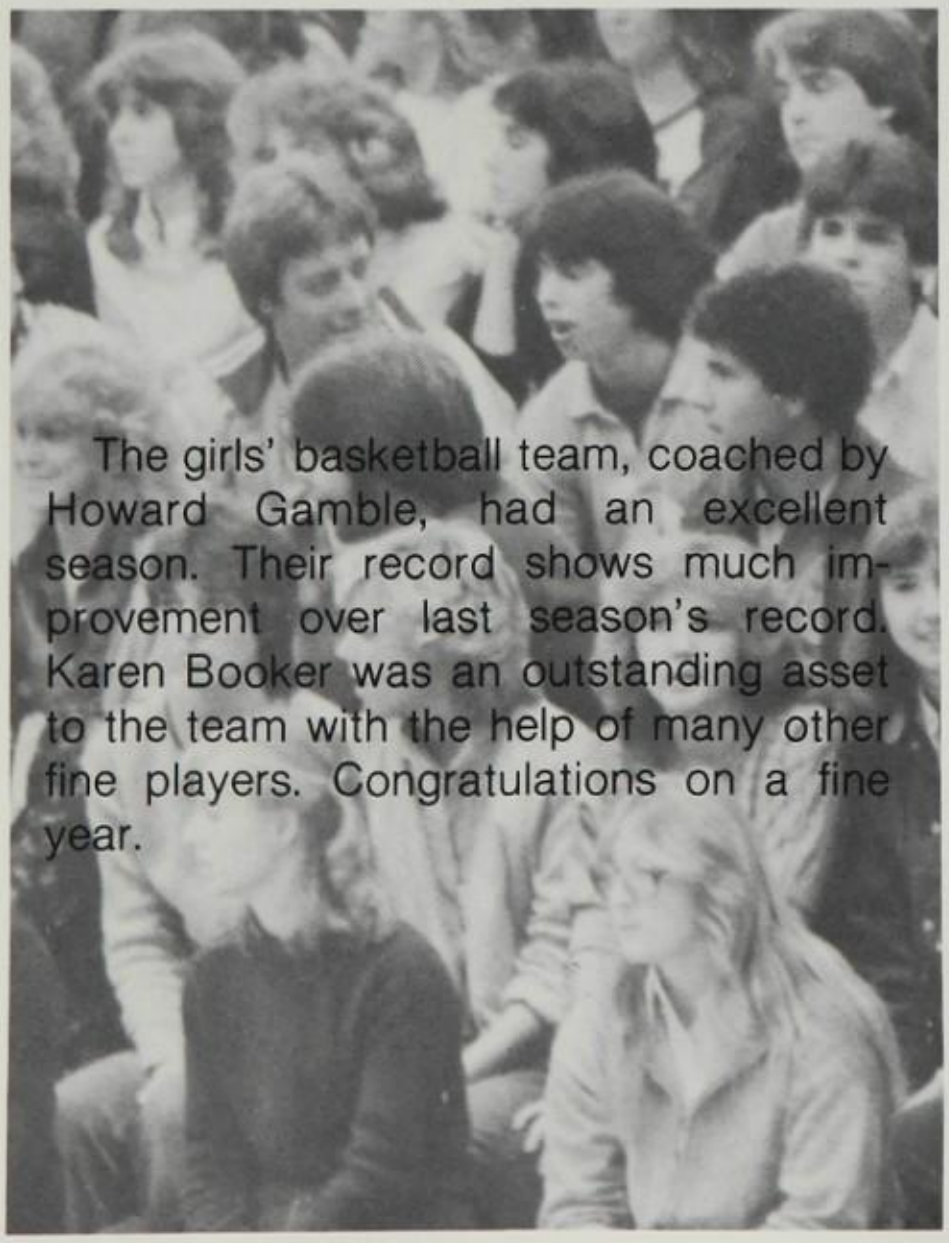
Rebelettes



The girls' basketball team, coached by Howard Gamble, had an excellent season. Their record shows much improvement over last season's record. Karen Booker was an outstanding asset to the team with the help of many other fine players. Congratulations on a fine year.

This year's wrestling team, coached by John Ingram and Jeff Jordan, had a very tough season. Their 12-5 record shows they really worked hard and put much of their time and energy into it. Congratulations to Brad Pennington who finished the season undefeated and to the team for a fine year.

1981 Mayor's Cup Winner

As usual, The Franklin High Marching Rebel Band had a successful season. A number of factors made this year successful including a fantastic band camp. Along with the traditional sweat and hard work, a thousand laughs were laughed and many tears were shed to make a great band camp '83. This year, the band took on a new look with new uniforms and new flags.

Even though we did not bring home "the cup" this year, we brought home a first place trophy and challenge cup from the Tennessee Valley Invitational, a second place overall trophy from the Music City Invitational and also honorable mention cup from the Contest of Champions for the third best overall band.

Speaking from experience, we (the band) learned that "it is not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game." But watch out our "feathered" friends and "Big Macs," we will be back next year to bring "it" home . . . again.

Sandra,

Hey Girl! Talk about a year literally flying by this one sure did! It was a great year though. But next year will be even better. Seniors! Yep deep! I can't wait! It'll be great. Well thanks for all the laughs & good times we have had. I'll never forget them. I'm sure there will be many more to come. Thanks for always being such a good friend. Your friendship means a lot to me. I hope we'll always keep up our good friendship. I'll never forget ya. Take care of yourself & be good, well at least try to be good!

I'll be seeing you this summer!

Love Always,

ADS

Sandra,

You're a really nice and sweet girl. I'm awfully glad that we got to know each other this year. You are a trip!!. Hopefully I'll see you this summer, but if not, you have a great Summer anyway!!. Best of Luck Always!!

Love YA,

Sandra,

Hey Chick! It's been one fast year! It's been real & it's been fun but it ain't been real fun! I'm glad we finally got a class together and it was one wild class!!! Ma Mary Jane was pretty cool most of the time never forget chargin' rappin' bulls for a hobby, + all our other great memories of the 82-83 school year!! I just can't believe that we'll be seniors next year. We'll rouse some! I'm really glad that we've been friends another year!! maybe we'll have some more wild classes together next year. Since we're both taking all those hard courses!!! We're gonna have a blast at Ridgecrest + all of our other fun youth activities. Especially Revolutionary Ideas!!! Hee Hee love ya lotz + lots Stay sweet!! Gena Ma

Editor's Corner

Kathleen

Pam

Well, Pam, another year has come to an end, and so does our 1983 Annual. It kinda forms a lump in your throat and brings tears of joy to your eyes!

No, Kathleen, that's just lunch! We had a GREAT time though, and the staff did a great job. Also, we had good ole' Mrs. Williams leading the way!

Okay . . . Pam, I guess the time has come for me to say good-bye to FHS and leave you as Senior Editor for 1984! We would like to thank the following people for all their help:

Karen Williams!!!

Sandra,

You are so super sweet! You are a crazy gal! Remember the elephant and the butterfly; war dance; and grandma goes house. Band would have been so boring with out you. I hope we will both be rifles next year because we will have a blast! Call me this summer and we can do something exciting! you are so sweet to talk me into asking someone to Sate Hawkins (even though it didn't work out) you are a super friend,

Love ya
a lot
Julie

Sandra,

Julie

Sandra,

Hi Biddy!! I'm glad we've been friends for another year. It's been really fun in band this year (except for when we were in the office; or you were vacuuming, ha ha!) You better not forget "Grandma" or the rain dance! It's gonna be great next year being "fellow rifles"! I'll c-ya at church.

Love ya always,

Lisa

Sandra.
You save me absolutely no room so I'm not gonna write a damn thing! JK. You're really a great gal + I feel lucky to have you as a friend. See ya this summer + at BAND CAMP.

Love ya.

Sandra,
Well, what is there to say except in the time weve known each other we have become best friends and had fun times doing things only we would do. your a great friend and and wild & crazy girl to be around. I know David & I have driven you crazy "picking" on each other but really we do get along more than we "pick". I can't wait for Band Camp this summer, it's going to be a blast because we will be the big Seniors! I hope that we will always remain good friends. we are going to have to do things this summer other than Band. See ya,

Love & Friend,

boys.

Love ya,
Rachel

Thanks for the crack.

Sandra,
really fun
this year!
Have a great summer!
Hope to see you next year.
Love,
Lois

Sandra,
I was going to write something bad but I won't since I'm such a nice, considerate, kind, & modest human being. Knowing you this year & all the others has been fun & I know it has been for you.
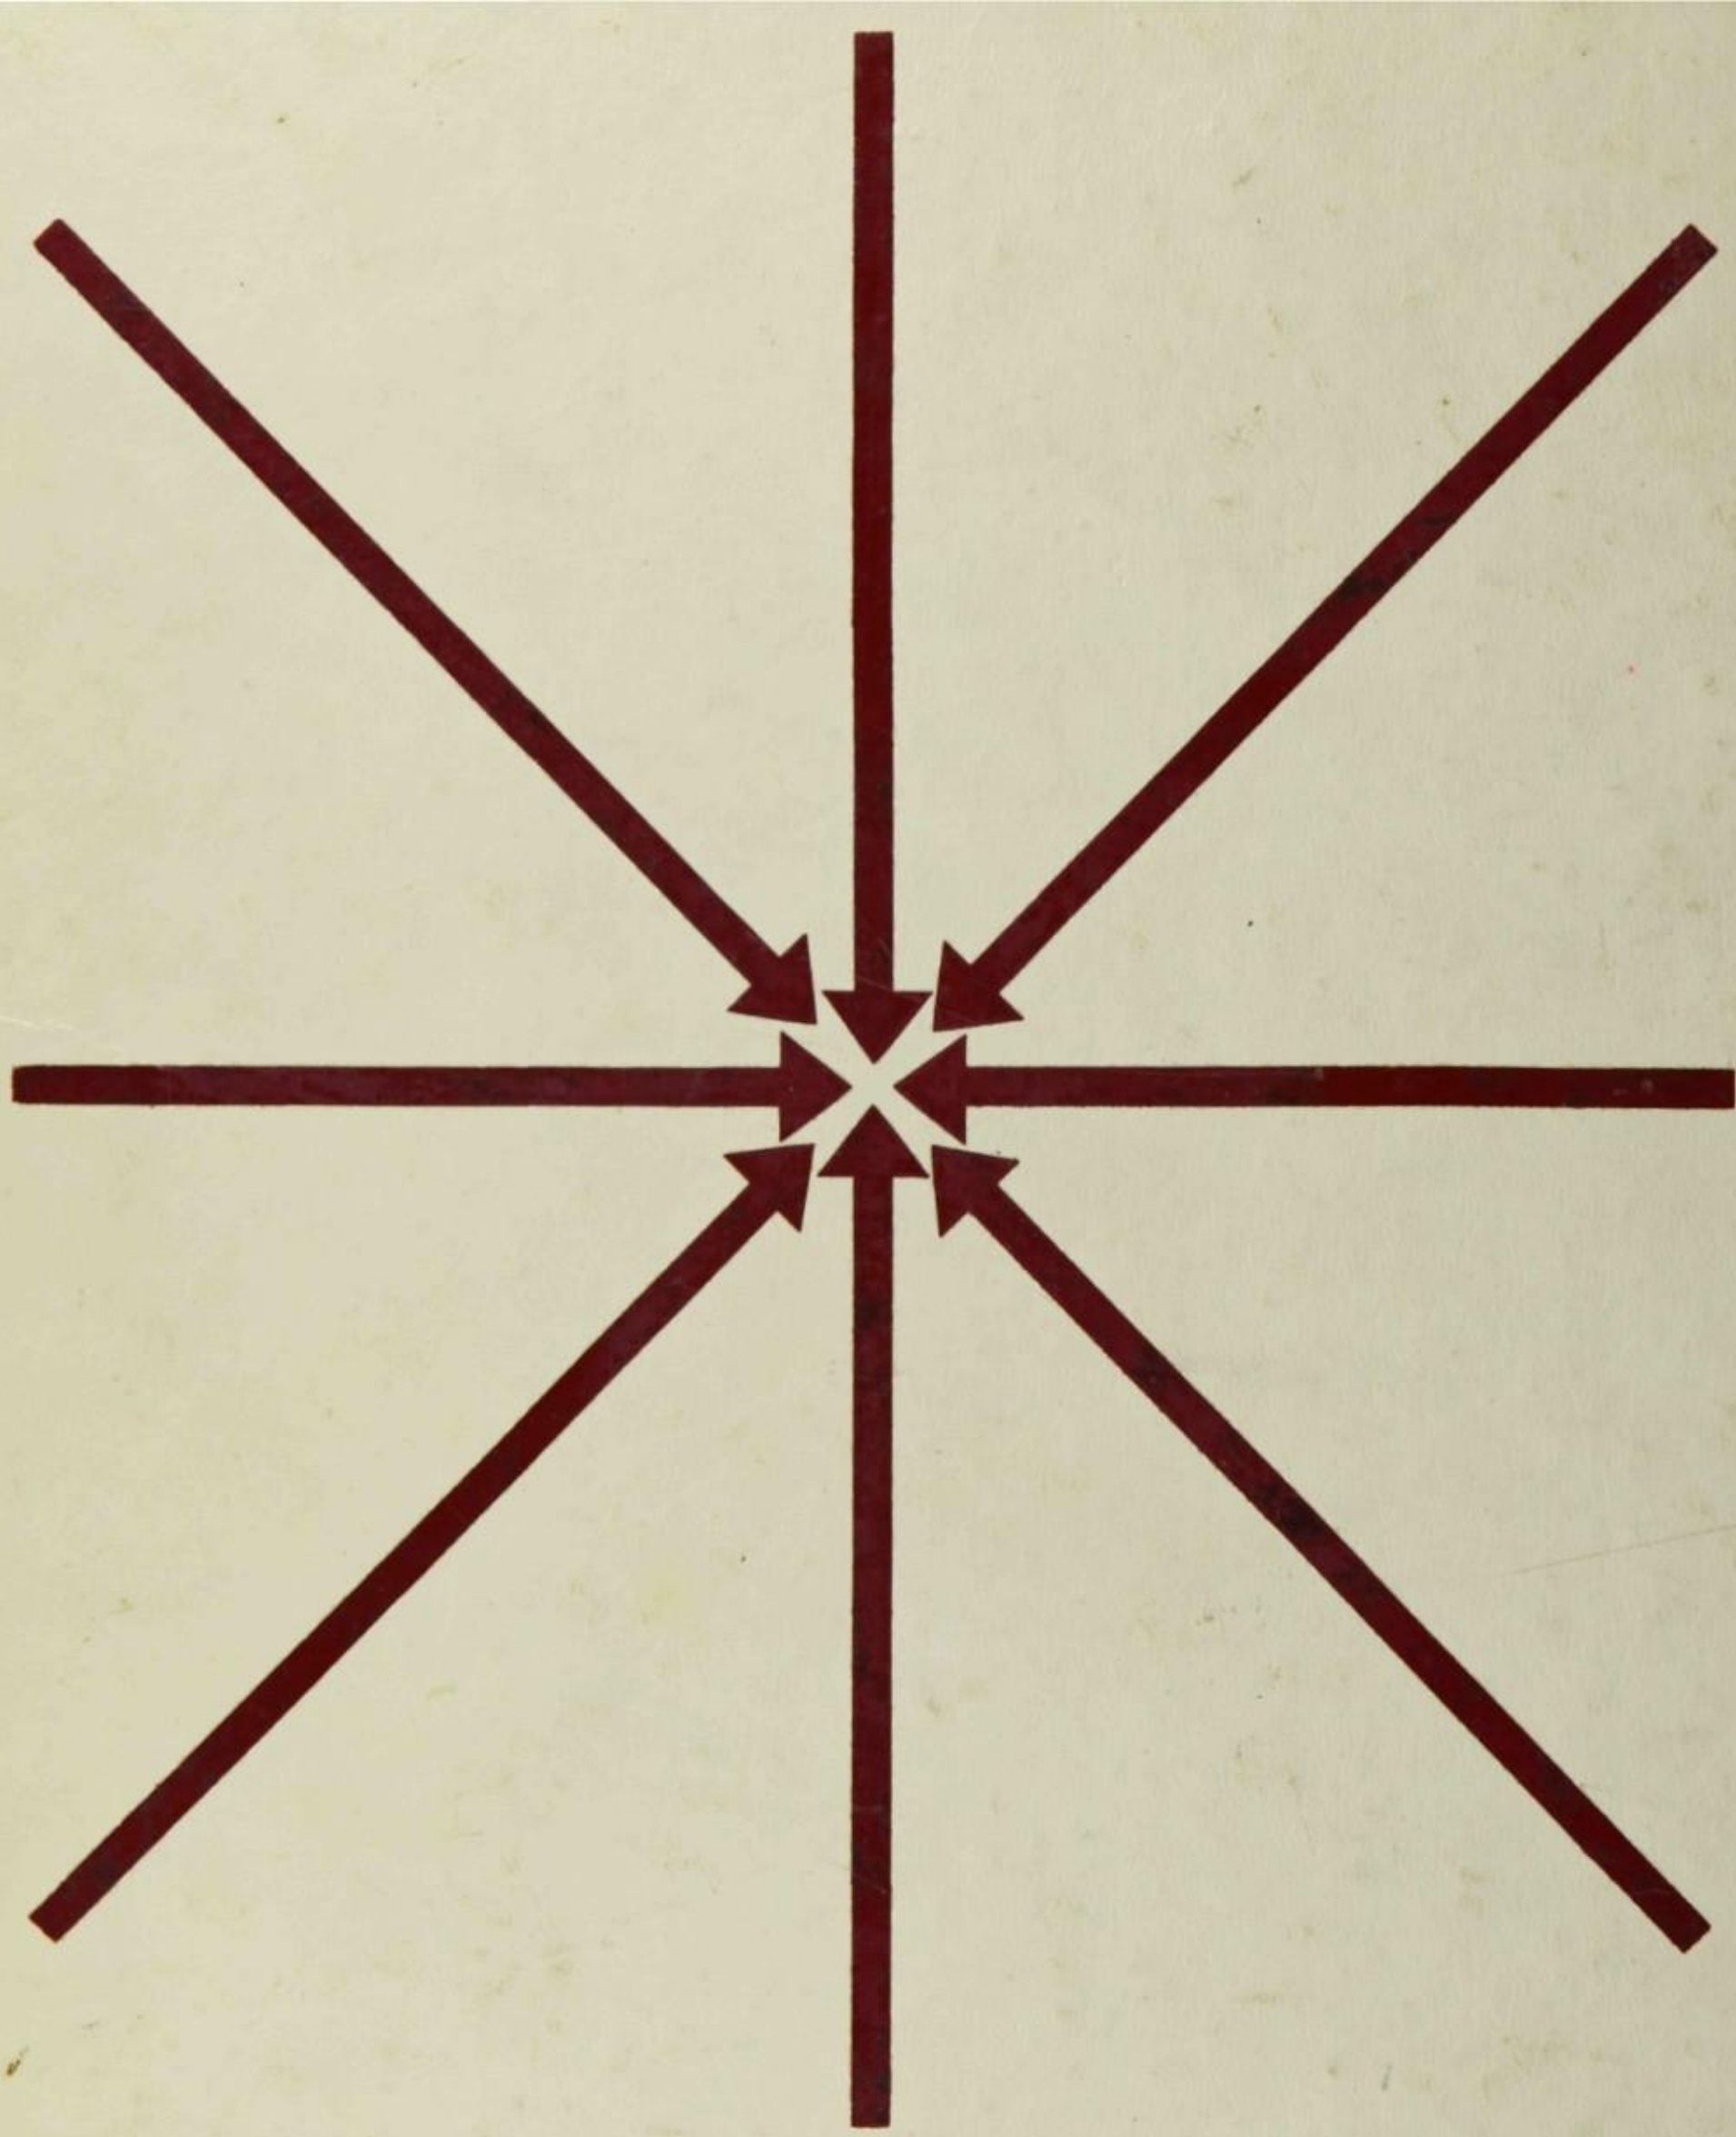
In All My Modesty,
Stuart


Sandra,
You're a very sweet
girl and dear friend.
I hope to know you for a long time. Best luck in the future.
Love,
Todd Tuttle
